Dear Parents and Carers,

In response to some of your requests relating to meeting the many demands of juggling home schooling and home working, the teaching team would like to support you further by rescheduling the uploading of activities for each day's learning at 5pm the evening before.

There is absolutely no expectation or need for children to access these at this time but we understand this may help households to timetable or schedule the next day's learning along with other family commitments.

If there is anything else we can do to support you with accessing our school curriculum at home please do contact us on admin@corsham-pri.wilts.sch.uk

Yours faithfully
